DETAILED ACTION

1. This application claims benefit of the foreign application:
GERMANY 19962601.4 with a filing date 12/23, 1999.
2. Amendment of claims 3, and 28-33, and cancellation of claims 1-2, 4-25 in Paper No. 0704, dated July 29, 2004, is acknowledged. Claims 3 and 26-38 are pending in the application.

Responses to Amendment

3. Since the limitation of the variable Y of formula (I) has been incorporated into claim 3, therefore, the rejection of claims 3 and 26-38 under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, has been overcome in Paper No. 0704, dated July 29, 2004. Since the limitation "step (a)" of claim 28 has been eliminated, therefore, the rejection of claim 28 under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, has been overcome in Paper No. 0704, dated July 29, 2004.

Responses to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments regarding rejection of claims 33-38 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) and 103(a) filed on July 29, 2004, have been fully considered and they are persuasive. Since the instant invention is drawn to a process of making a compound of formula (I), and the dependent claims 33-38 are drawn to a process of making the intermediate of formula (III), therefore, Dever et al. 3,459,837 is not qualified a prior art against the instant invention. The rejection of claims 33-38 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) and 103(a) is withdrawn herein.

Reasons for Allowance

5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 3 and 26-38 are neither anticipated nor rendered obvious over the art of record, and therefore are allowable. This invention relates to process for the preparation of N-phosphonomethylglycine. The closest prior art of record is Felix's US 4,476,063, discloses N-acylaminomethyl-N-cyanomethyl phosphates. The difference between instant claims and Felix's is that the instant starting material (i.e., compounds of formula III) of processes is not used. Suggestion for modification of prior art to obtain the instant processes, has not been found. Claims 3 and 26-38 are allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
